“ My heart aches right now, not because of sadness but because you've reached the place where there is no more sorrow or pain. It's all happiness and singing around the throne. I send my prayers and condolences Vada, Tama, Tony, Linda, Mark, and Stanley. I so desperately wanted to be there to pay my respects to my precious cousin. Anthony was there to help me through the rough times when my late husband passed in 2008. I was forever grateful to him for looking over his little cousin while being alone in Georgia. I'll cherish the great times we shared growing up and all of us getting in trouble for not behaving in church- Mark. Rest in peace my precious cousin and I'll see you there.
