“ I love you girls, each and every one of you. Sorry I couldn't be there. But Barbara Sue knows I love her and the last time we spoke to each other we were laughing about all the things I did to her when I was little and about how different things are today. She will be missed dearly. If you need me you know how to reach me. Jen Jen I love you like a sister. You are my sister. I will pray for the family. Greta I love you. You know you're my girl.
