“ I'm so sorry to hear about this. Bill worked for me several years ago. He was a absolute nut but a hard dependable worker. He came to work one day with his legs burned and in bandages. He was definitely in no condition to do the construction work we did. I sent him home. He was real disappointed. I could tell several stories but not here. Lol. I was very fond of Bill. My condolences to Jean and all of his family. You're in my heart, thoughts and prayers.

“ I will sure miss my boy. He was truly a momma's boy. He had been my side kick for the last 3 years. Every where I went he went with me to help me. This is one of the hardest trials that I have faced in my life.
