

Billy Edward Webster

April 13, 1940 - April 8, 2022

Billy Edward Webster was born on April 13, 1940 in Memphis, TN to Jesse and Doris Barren Webster.

One of four boys, he lived many places including Europe with his military father and step-mother, Joyce.

Once he was discharged from his own Army service at Fort Knox, he settled in Louisville. He began working for the state and later transferred to Frankfort where he met his wife, Judy.

Billy operated /owned several businesses there including a restaurant and a cab/limousine service.

When they retired, they moved to London and lived on the family farm.

He is survived by his wife, Judy and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

“ Will always remember going to Judy & Billy's house as kids and playing with Lucky in the yard. He was a sweet man to all he knew and loved. He will be missed.
