“ I always remember Aunt Blanche as a prissy woman. She was so funny. We used to visit her a lot when I was younger and she would make goulash and elbow noodles it was the best. I have tried many times to make mine like hers but it never quite turns out right. I know that there is a little less light in the world now that she is gone but Aunt Blanche fly high. Love you and thank you for the great memories and being a great sister to my mom. RIP
