

Bradley E. Wilson

September 17, 1958 - September 20, 2024

Bradley E. Wilson, age 66, of London, Kentucky passed away on Friday, September 20, 2024.

He leaves behind his wife, Patricia Newsome Wilson; his brother, Jerry Wilson; plus a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and a host of other family and friends to mourn his passing.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Melvin & Norma Combs Wilson; and by his sister, Lisa Wilson.

Bradley was a self-employed trucker, and he took pride in his work and built a reputation for his reliability and dedication.

Bradley proudly served in the U.S. Army, where he developed a strong sense of discipline and commitment that he carried throughout his life. His love for music was well-known among family and friends—whether playing, listening, or discussing his favorite artists. In his downtime, Bradley could often be found outdoors, enjoying the peace of hunting trips in nature. He was also an avid reader, always expanding his mind, and had a true passion for good food, savoring every meal with joy.

A man of remarkable intelligence, Bradley had a way of seeing the world that left a lasting impact on everyone he met. Above all, he was a devoted husband whose love and loyalty were unwavering.

He will be deeply missed by all who knew him, and his memory will live on in the hearts of those he touched.

“Patricia, I worked with Brad at Maxium. Brad was a great fellow and coworker. He will be remembered by many of the people he worked with. I'm very sorry for your loss and pray for you to have peace and comfort during this time. I was the one that made him the cakes. He loved cake and probably ate more than he should have. Prayers for his family.”
