“ We met in the 4th grade and I knew him up until graduation. We lost touch but I never forgot him. Rest easy friend.

“ I was blessed to call Brandon (and Tommy) my son for many years. He was always protecting of his little sister at that time in our life and loved his family. He looked up to his Daddy and we were happy as a close family while he lived in Ohio working with his dad. He was a proud father of his baby girl and a very good daddy at that! He kept us laughing. Brandon had a way to touch everyone he came in contact with.

He is now home with your amazing Mom & strong Dad. Rest in Perfect Brandon
