“ I always thought Brenda was a really sweet person and tried to help everybody when it comes to work she really done a good job of it. I started working at the new high school with her when it first opened, we both learned what to do together, and gotten along good, she will be missed greatly even though I didn't work with her at the end when she gotten sick. will be keeping the family and friends in my prayers away but we all know where she is at right now.
