“ I have known Brent for 40 Years, he was bound to be one of the best friends that I have ever had . I will totally miss his laugh, and talking to him when times got tough or if we both just needed a laugh, I know more than anything that he adored his daughter Brittany and his grandsons more than anything in this world. His family meant the world to him . Brent Thank you for so many years of a wonderful lifelong friendship, you will be deeply missed , Love Donna
