“ I am 46 and I started reading his vivid account's of my hometown. He taught me so much with his detailed stories of his memories of the Begley Drug Store and so many other stories. I could picture every story as he made the word's come alive , he shared about his personal life and once at the age of 29 I met him as he was taking picture's at a public event , I truly will miss a man whose gift was one of a kind . My Prayers to all who were blessed enough to truly know him.

“ Carl was a storyteller and a dreamer. If he hadn't physically lived it, he could imagine himself there and in that exact moment. When Carl wrote about someplace new, even if it were only 50 miles down the road, he allowed the reader to ride shotgun on his trip, seeing the beautiful changing landscape through his mind's eye.

“ Carl Keith besides being a real Laurel County supporter, was a true friend. Most folks don't know that CK was also an Amateur Radio Operator and that he held the rank of Major in the London Squadron Civil Air Patrol. He started in the cadet program as a boy and as an adult became the Squadron Public Information Officer, responsible for disseminating information during the many search missions the squadron became involved in. He was also a qualified Mission Observer and flew search missions. We became good friends through the squadron, and during my tenure as Squadron Commander Carl was an invaluable asset. RIP Carl, I will miss you.

“ Carl Keith Greene - a true Laurel County son, Kentucky journalist, writer, poet, and photographer, often a living oxymoron in many ways, both in word and in life, a complex yet beautiful soul, a man having faith in God who is bigger than all, a man who was unafraid of critical thinking, inviting us to think outside the box, a man who attempted to stand alongside the "anawim" (Hebrew word for those so cherished by God who feel small, no voice, or are poor in spirit and/or poor in pocket). Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon him.
