Wayne was one of a kind—a true original who left a lasting impression on everyone he met. Known for his quick wit, love of a good prank, and ability to pick, prod, and scare just about anyone for a laugh, Wayne made it his mission to keep life interesting. He was a proud smart aleck, always aggravating folks in the most lovable way—and always showing up fashionably late while doing it.

Wayne had a gift for talking—once he got going, you weren't getting away from him easy. But that's part of what made him unforgettable. He was a loyal Dale Earnhardt NASCAR fan, a die-hard UK Basketball supporter, and a father who loved his children fiercely.

A true jokester and prankster with a big heart, Wayne brought laughter, life, and love wherever he went. His memory will live on in the stories told, the laughs shared, and the hearts he touched.
