“ Carlous loved cornhole too. Every year at the Love Out Loud festival my husband and I would play against him and Jesse and beat them every year we played except last year they got us. The ruckus he and Jesse made beating us was so hilarious. My husband John passed away July 28 and now precious Carlous is meeting him in heaven. Rest In Peace young man. Your in the arms of the angels and hearing the Lord say enter my son.

“ One that comes to mind is the time Car Car was at the house and he and the other boys were on the trampoline wrestling, cause they always loved wrestling, and one of them fell on his foot. I took him to the hospital and waited on Gail. It ended up being broken on top of his foot. They told me he had fallen down my back steps. Of course I believed them, they wouldn't lie to me. Lol. Carlos said, "I didn't tell you it happened on the trampoline Aunt Amber because I was afraid you wouldn't let me back on it". He should have known better. He always had me wrapped around his little finger. Aunt Amber loves you to the moon and back my little Car Car.

“ I am so sorry...I pray for the LORD to wrap HIS arms around you all and give you comfort and peace. Carlous was such a precious young man. He had a beautiful soul. I thank GOD that I had the pleasure of knowing him. He loved his friends and would do anything to help someone. He loved his Mountain Dew and wrestling. He loved his sisters and was always protective over them at school. Most of all, he talked about GOD a lot to me. I was the teacher's assistant in his class room. I considered him to be one of my boys. I will forever love him and thank GOD for having him be a part of my life for the four years I was at NLHS. He was truly a treasure!
