“ Such a beautiful soul that I was blessed to know and love just like a mother and although only one of my sons was her biological grandchild she loved both of them and never made a difference in them, which is one of many reasons I loved her so dearly...little Joel thought his Nana hung the moon...She will be missed dearly and remembered daily for the special lady she was here on earth whose love knew no boundaries! Fly high Nana with your new body which no longer aches and look down on us from time to time with your new eyes! We love you

“ Cassie was the greatest Mom a boy could ever have. Always loving and caring for me and my family. If you knew her and ever want to see her again you'll have to be born again. She is with Jesus now. Pray for my family and me as we try to get through the loss of my Mother. She will be missed by many but never forgotten. We love you Nana !!!
