

Cecile "Cissy" Baker-Nixon

June 23, 1964 - February 21, 2023

Cecile "Cissy" Baker-Nixon, age 58, of London, Kentucky passed away peacefully on Tuesday, February 21, at Saint Joseph Hospital in London, Kentucky.

She leaves behind one son James "Jamie" Nixon of London, Ky, one brother Joseph Baker (Alissa) of Atlanta, Ga, and one sister Gladys Baker of Chicago Heights, IL. Beloved nieces and nephews are Kazrina, Chanel, J'Anthony, Annrea, Kazie, and great-nephews Jayden, Marvon, and her great niece Mykeyah, plus a host of other family and friends to mourn her passing.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Fred & Jereline Baker, son Warren R. Baker, one brother Fredrick Baker and one sister Carolyn Andrews.

Cecile was a member of the North Main Christian Church where she loved singing in the choir. She developed a love for the Lord at an early age and would share her testimony of what God had done in her life. She loved spending time with her son Jamie as well as traveling to visit her brother and sister. She loved to read various books, especially the National Inquirer. Cecile had a big heart when helping anyone who came to her.

The memorial service for Cecile Nixon will be conducted at 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, February 26 at House-Rawlings Funeral home. The family has entrusted House-Rawlings Funeral Home with the arrangements.

“ The first time I met Cecile was in 9th grade... my very first year of public school AND in a newly built LCJH... I was scared to death... she was in my HomeEc class and literally took me under her wing... I am forever grateful for your kindness... "Eternal rest grant Cecile, oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine on her... may she Rest In Peace"
