never forget all the late night sleep overs at his and Sarah's house with Rachel Rose Hession where he would ask us if we wanted him to make us his special homemade pizza. Which I must say was phenomenal! He always made sure to tell me to take care of his girl Rachel when we were together and I'd always say don't worry I got her! Rachel he loved you more than you will ever know! He was a good man who cared about his community and his family! He has brought this last few years but one of the proudest moments I truly believe for him was when he was right about Easton being a boy. He said I know for a fact it's a boy... and boy was he right! Your daddy is walking those streets of gold with Jesus telling him a few jokes and I look forward to the day we will all be together in Heaven.
