“ I always admired Clara. We went to School together at Lily. She was a quiet genteel person, who acted much older than her age. I thought she was a great person. My thought's and prayers are with the family.

“ To the Family of Clara Ann McKnight,
I wanted to express how deeply sorry I am for your loss. More importantly, I wanted to share with you that death isn't the end thanks to the resurrection promise made by our Heavenly Creator Himself in Scriptures like (Isaiah 25: 8), (John 5: 28), (1 Corinthians 15:26), (Revelation 21:3 and 4), which can comfort you in this difficult time. Without the resurrection promise, there would be no hope of ever seeing our dead loved ones again as they would remain “.Conscious of nothing at all . . .” as stated in Ecclesiastes 9:5, 10. However, mercifully, by means of the resurrection promise, Jehovah God has opened up the priceless opportunity for untold multitudes of people who have died to come back from the dead and enjoy eternal life on an earthly paradise in the near future. This means that you can have the heartwarming hope to someday right here on earth, in God's new and righteous world, be reunited with your loved ones who have fallen asleep in death.—Mark 5:35, 41, 42; Acts 9:36-41. Even though this may be hard to believe, it's not mere dream. The resurrection is a guaranteed promise made by Jehovah God, who according to Hebrews 6 verse 18 cannot lie. Furthermore, by resurrecting Jesus Christ, He has given us sound reason to trust in Him. May you be comforted by the cited Scriptures, which give us hope for a wonderful future in God's upcoming new world! (Matthew 19: 28-30); (2 Peter 3:13)
