“ We just found out about Clede passing. Our hearts are breaking right now can't believe that she's in Heaven flying around with the other Angels. I didn't get to say goodbye or pay my respects to the family. A friend of ours just told us about Sissy(Clede's) passing omg which we knew cause Clede was family to us. We all lived together when she moved here in Elizabethtown about 14 or 15 years ago. Clede wasn't only a roommate she was family!!! I will never forget the time she came out of her bedroom dressed up like an old man and she had her pants pulled up under her arms and the legs of the pants came to knees LOL we laughed so hard and so much that my stomach was sore the next day. Clede was such a blessing and such a good friend that she's going to be missed by many people. Anyone that came in contact with her loved her and she always made us laugh. God has a great Angel flying around in Heaven that's going to keep a smile on all the rest of the Angels.

“ I've been up and down for the last couple days thinking of u my dear friend, i know u were like a mother hen after my daughter Pamela, because of her health, you and her would get on to each other for not taking care of yourselves, Pamela would tell u when we came to the hospital one of the million times u were in there at least i haven't been put in the hospital, but you would come back to her and say well take care of yourself and that won't happen. You never stop getting on her, so i hope now she will take care of herself better, you loved my kids like they were yours u always asked about them. And i'd ask about ur kids, i had the pleasure of working with Nikki and Frankie, but i really never got to meet the other 2 kids i'm sure they r like u wonderful. Well i love you Dear Cleda, my hearts so broken, we planned on getting together soon, but i guess i will see you there in heaven, you beautiful angel, please watch over me and my family, and watch over ur beautiful children.

“ don't know where to even start, I just saw you on Friday, we laughed and we cried. But that was us we could be talking laughing and crying all at once. I have so many memories of you and all of them are great. But the one I want to share with everyone is ...of my wedding night. After my husband and I were married, cleada decided she was going home with us...well she climbed in the old 69 Malibu with us and off we went, on the way home we had a blow out scared the crap out of us she grabbed one leg and al (as she called him) grabbed the other. We hobbled home on three wheels and we laughed so hard I think we both wet our pants....and the rest is history. R.I.P I will love her forever and a day!

“ I want to start off by saying i'm sorry for the families loss, but with that said i feel she was like a sister to me. We worked together for many years at Best Western, when it was Best Western, she was an angel among all of us everyday, when i was late but i really wasn't late, because i always got there 2 hrs. early to see her And another Co-worker Michaela, we would have coffee and cut up until time for work. When we got stuck there in the winter months we would go to each others rooms and have some tequilla, i had never tried tequilla until one winter we were stuck there and she made me one. So i'm going to miss that beautiful face, that smile, that laugh, and the kindness of u being my adopted sister. I love u dear friend. You can rest in peace, i'll see you again.

“ There's about a billion memories floating through my head now. One doesn't stick out. What I remember most and makes me miss her more than anything is her hugs. When we'd say goodbye we would always hug and she would always whisper "I love you, baby" in my ear. I can hear it now. Just as she said it. I also remember her laugh. The way she'd bend over and put her hand on her chest and her eyes would squint and tears would roll and then she'd throw her head back. I'd give anything to hear it right now. I miss making fun of her dog, Callie and her telling me to "leave it alone, Sandra." I miss cooking with her. She taught me recipes I use all the time now. I miss her telling stories about the family. I miss watching Netflix with her for hours. I just miss her and I know all of you do too. I'm not sad for her. She's at peace, happy, no longer sick and in pain. She doesn't have to deal with the stresses of life anymore. I feel sad for all of us who knew her and loved her and especially those she loved because her love was fierce.
