“ Danny Baker, wow, you're gone. My heart breaks. You and I had so many fun times hunting and fishing and just walking around town and talking and sharing our problems with each other. You was definitely a friend. We lost touch after you had moved away from Greensburg but man I never forgot you and always wondered where you went, I would have come to visit if I would have known. We spent so much time together in high school, I watched you just evolve into the man that you came to be. I still can't believe that you are gone. I always told people I could look the world a thousand times over and I would never find another Danny Baker. Well here I am I'm now living in Texas, I've been around quite a bit and I can honestly say I've never met another Danny Baker. I love and miss you my friend. Rest in peace

Rest in peace my brother. Sorry I had to move far from home to find gainful employment. So we lost contact. I remember the funny name you gave your first dog. I remember other funny things we did together when you were younger. Your memory lives on in my heart and my mind. May you Rest In Peace my Brother.
