Darrell was an incredible man. He was the most generous person around. He helped countless people. He was a gentle man who loved his wife, kids, grandkids, great grandkids, and the rest of his family and friends. He loved the people that society didn't. He loved broken people and helped them anyway he could. He was a very generous person who loved to give. He was a successful business man. He loved Rod Runs and loved buying and selling classic and hotrod cars. He loved demolition derbies and was successful in those, as well. He loved bears and cades cove, as well as the beach. He loved animals and had horses for years. You could always catch him with an RC cola in his hand.

Darrell departed this life at Baptist Health Corbin, where he passed away from complications due to bowel issues, diabetes, amongst other health issues. It was his wish that everyone take care of themselves. He fought a fight like no other, and now he is at peace with our loved ones and Lord and Savior. Darrell passed away peacefully with his loving family by his side.

He loved his family, friends, the Lord, the broken and rejected. He was a wonderful man and will be missed greatly until we see him again. If Darrell could speak to anyone today, he would ask them to get saved so that they can go to Heaven one day, too.
