“ Diane Branch was not only my mommy. She was also my bestfriend, my secret keeper, and most of all my hero. She made me the strong independent woman I am today. I'm so blessed to have had such a wonderful loving mother to help guide me throughout my life. She's been an inspiration to her children, grand children, and her friends. I don't quite know how I'll go on without my mommy. She's always told me how proud she was of me. I'm going to keep going and continue to make her proud, everyday of my life. I refuse to tell her goodbye, because I know I'll see her again. RIP my beautiful angel, until we meet again.

“ My mommy the best mother in this world. She had a heart of gold loved every body and had the best personality . When mommy was in the hospital I had stayed with her one night and the news was talking about the Kentucky and Georgia game she looked up at me and said that is who was playing the night me and your daddy got married . She preceded to tell me how Dad kept whispering to Mike and Terry to check the score ..It was so funny and so good to see her laughing she said Kim was just a baby and crawling under her dress pulling her pantyhose down. God how I miss my mom ..Life will never be the same but I have to go on so I can help take care of my Dad ..I see the sadness in his eyes loosing his partner of 40 years ..I am happy my mom is with her loved ones who have passed and she is not sick anymore but I still want her hear don't know if I can get through life without her ..
