“ He was such a good man with a kind heart. I will never forget him picking up his granddaughter at East Bernstadt School. So pleasant to be around. I worked with his daughter and I also knew his wife Veda. I've know them for many years and they are wonderful friends. I know Don will be missed. I am so sorry for his departure. Prayers for the whole family. Such of shock to me. But God is our comfort and our strength. He will take care of his children.

“ Veda, Sandy and rest of the family, we're so very sorry to hear of your loss. As I was growing up, I rarely ever saw Don without a smile on his face and talking about horses which I never grew tired of and that will be my memories I'll always cherish.
