“ What a beautiful soul was my first impression of Dorothy when I met her all over 15 years ago down in Kentucky when my husband and I live briefly in Perryville, Kentucky, and where our granddaughter Emily met her future husband George Keen and where I met Dorothy what a lovely lady! She and I became kindred spirits and had wonderful times together as often as we could possibly get together, even after moving to Junction city we remain friends and remained so until we move back to Michigan 14 Years ago, to Petoskey, Mi up on the tip of the mitten ! My granddaughter, Emily was very devoted to her grandma Dorothy and knowing my granddaughter, Dorothy got the best of care you can get with plenty of love included. You'll be so missed sweet lady. See you in heaven love Meredith and Ken Kucharski
