“ On January 1, 2016, my husband and I met Dorothy McKnight. We were immediately drawn to her sense of humor. She blessed us with a smile and a friendly greeting each day we saw her. I was sitting beside her Friday during a BINGO game and I was amazed how she could keep up with the cards just as well as I could - (I haven't reached 60 yet). Dorothy McKnight was a very special lady . . . even if we only knew her for two weeks . . . I thank the good Lord above for allowing us the few days to know her. The memories of Dorothy will be a constant reminder of how I want to be at 95. She truly touched our lives . . . peace be with you Dorothy McKnight.
