“ My cousin Dwayne was a great guy all around, and I loved to joke with him and talk plants and family history . I would often go to the farmer's market just to see him, and not enough times to the farm does he him and Glenda we all get busy in life and think that our family and mentors will be around forever and of course things to covid we saw even less of each other and family I hope Glenda got to tell him I love him before he passed
