“ My time with Eddie at our family Reunion was a time of Sadness for this Fine Man Married to my Wonderful Niece TAMMY . I set and watched Eddie struggle with a Bad Hip and My Concern For Eddie grew as we spent beautiful hours together, during our beautiful reunion. Everyone Loved Talking to this man of Knowledge, Building Experience was with a dought superior to everyone, except my Dad and My Brothers who had the Master Abilities that allowed them to Super Succeede other builders, Ed's home he built for Beatrice and family displays EDDIES Craftsmanship. Talking to Eddie allowed me to hear Eddies future Wishes which included a New Beautiful Home located here where he and Tammys property in Keavy Kentucky. All you had to do was take a look around where our reunion was to See Eddies Craftsmanship Everywhere, beautiful Natural WOOD Craftsmanship everywhere. His Hobbies along with Miss Tammys help in choosing told a beautiful Story of Eddie and Tammys Hobbies which are their Loves. Water Sports are setting everywhere inside and around Eddie and Tammys property, which has to be fun every time they had free time to enjoy their Love for the Lake at Holly Bay. Eddie never bragged he just Enjoyed his Life with the Love of his Life Tammy. I really hate not being at the Funeral , we fear the Covid, but watching our Great Grand Son five days a week really wears Sheila and I down and now we have to Sleep a Lot to try and keep up with our 21/2 year old MACK LEE Williams. Tammy hopefully you can forgive us for not being there beside you in your time of need. We Love You so much and your wonderful family, Tell everyone we just can't take a chance of anything happening to Our Mack Lee at this time, Love you Niece, Darrel and Sheila Wooton.
