I had no idea. Something told me right now to look her up because I always loved her and was drawn to how warm she was with everyone and her humor. I have missed so much and lost so much time since moving away. She holds a special place in my heart and I will always remember her.

“ My mother was an amazing woman who now as a man looking back realize is twice the parent I could ever be. She never drank alcohol, did drugs, or anything like that. I always got every toy, I was spoiled and loved. There was no one better than my momma and I'm thankful she was able to meet my daughter and spend five years watching her grow. I'm thankful to have had a mother like I had. Even to the age of sixteen my mother still took me to the bus stop every morning at the end of our little street to refusing to let me walk and even as a 40 year old man to her dying day still kept me safe and protected. Thank you momma for everything and rest in peace
