“ Jim thanks for your message, it means soo much. I used to come with granny while Mrs. Frye done her hair, both such sweet ladies. Granny I know your in a much better place, no more suffering and pain. I miss you soo much, I didn't want you to go, but know you belong with God. Heaven definitely gained another angel last night. I know you are with me, and I can't wait to be with you in heaven someday. I will always love you, and see you later.
Your grandson,
Matthew.

“ At least Aunt Edna is not hurting anymore. I really enjoyed with her when my mother and I would come to London to visit with Aunt Bessie. We love the family. If we could get out of our driveway we would be with you. We are having a major ice storm here in East Texas, Just know we love you and take care. I really enjoyed the day she pointed out her Salmon Pink headstone. I just giggled with Aunt Edna. I am sure her spirit is special in Heaven as it was special to us here on earth.
Love ya,
Cathy and Jean Hudson

“ Edna was a customer at my mother’s beauty shop in London. Gertrude Frye was my mother. Edna was my mother’s last customer during mom’s final working years, as a beautician. I have many memories of Edna coming to Mom’s beauty shop each Friday to get a “shampoo and set” from Mom. I will send flowers in honor of Edna and Mom’s relationship. May God bless Edna Thorpe’s soul.
