“ Our most sincere condolences to family and friends of this dear one. Eula was first cousin to my grandma Lillie Gabbard Couch. We were blessed to visit her and Coonie twice a few years ago. What wonderful, kind, and fun family they both were. The visits were never long enough as we spent time sorting through and copying many old photos, laughing and sharing old family stories. And ... you could not escape without a piece or even an entire cushaw pie! I'm sure she must have been famous for it! Eula and Coonie were both treasures who will be sorely missed. If family reading this ever wants to keep in touch my email is beaready1 at gmail dot com. Praying the Lord's finest blessings for all of you!

“ I don't think I ever saw Eula that she didn't have a smile on her face; she was filled with the Holy Spirit, and joy, which always said to me, that this was someone who knew how to love. Prayers for the entire family.
