

Eva Lucile Burns Linger

May 28, 1923 - August 12, 2015

Eva Lucile Burns Linger passed away on August 12, 2015 in Waynesville, North Carolina. She is survived by her children; Yvette Linger Johns and Craig Harrison Linger and wife Laura Linger; five grandsons, Bryant Johns, Curtis Johns, Nathaniel Linger, Noah Linger and Thomas Linger all of Waynesville, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years, Harrison Linger; her parents, Woodson and Bess Yaden Burns and her sister, Kathleen Burns Quinn. Lucile was born on a farm outside of London, Kentucky on May 28, 1923. Both of her parents' families had lived in the London area since the mid-1800s. She attended Rough Creek School, Bush High School and Berea College. She did secretarial work in Cincinnati, Chicago and Louisville before she married Harrison Linger, from Idaho Fall, Idaho in 1954. She spent most of her married life in Louisville, Kentucky before moving to Waynesville in 2008. There will be a graveside service in the Rough Creek Cemetery, London, Kentucky on Saturday, August 22, 2015 at 12:30 pm.

Cemetery Details

Rough Creek Cemetery

London, KY 40741