“ Not sure where to start. Evelyn was my second mom when I moved to London. Tom quickly became my best friend and we were inseparable all thru high school. During one of Tom’s and my late night adventures, I got busted by Evelyn. I will never forget that night. She was always quick to keep me on the straight and narrow. She treated me like a son. I am forever grateful to her and the Hagedorn family. My heart aches for the entire family. We take comfort knowing she is in the presence of our savior.
