“ We were so fortunate to have been able to know Frances. She had such an amazing life story, full of difficulty, war, obstacles, illness --- but she had such wonderful spirit. She was a strong person, yet gentle and humble, an endearing mix of the two. She had long offered up prayers for the workers here at Laurel Heights, even as she was so sick, herself --- it was such a generous and splendid thing to do. We'll miss her greatly.
