“ Gary will always and forever be in our hearts! We will treasure our memories and we will carry his laughter with us forever! He will truly be missed! He was a true friend and brother in Christ! Our memories will live forever more! Our most cherished memories will be when we would hang out in Barstow CA getting our trucks all polished and cleaned and then camping out in the camp grounds just relaxing and enjoying each other's company. He was always joking and carrying on, his laughter, I still can here it! I still have phone messages from him.....we love him and will miss him! To Fairy and family, you are in our thoughts and prayers. May God Bless you all with grace, peace and comfort.

“ I'm proud to say Gary Smith was one of my best friends!! We have logged many many hours on the phone. We solved many world problems and fought at least 2 wars. He will sure be missed. We talked many times about this time right now. We pretty much agreed that this is what we both wanted. Not to suffer for a long period. Vickie ask me to share something that was special well here goes. Probably the most enjoyment he had with me was telling everyone about the time I bought some sawzall blades. Oh how he enjoyed telling everyone that I bought 1 blade for $1.50 if you bought 2 it was $3.00 I told the guy that I would give him $5.00 for 3 blades like I was jewing him down. I made the mistake of telling him that. He laughed so hard he couldn't talk!!! And he told every body!!! We both laughed and laughed about it. He was a well liked and will sure be missed by a bunch of people. Till I we meet again my friend!!!
