“ Gilbert, I will never forget you my friend. I started to work for you when I was twelve years old making hotdogs. It was a stressful job, but you were a great "boss". REST IN PEACE MY FRIEND!

“ Whenever Joel and I bought the house next to Gilbert in 2014 I never imagined what a wonderful neighbor we were being blessed with. He and Joel became quick friends with Gilbert sharing all of his knowledge about our house as the remodeling was taking place. Joel passed two months before we were able to move in. The first time I went to the house after his passing Gilbert came over and told me that the garbage truck ran on Monday and he would be taking mine down for pick-up and would return it afterwards. He done that for 6 years, rain or sunshine. That's just one of many things he done for me over the years. He was such a kind man and always a gentleman. He was such an active man. He walked every day, push mowed his yard every week, and cleaned out his gutters every year. He surely was the very best neighbor/friend anyone could ever have. Life is a journey, travel it well. The journey of life is never complete without a friend to share the memories. Thanks for the memories Gilbert. My deepest condolences to Jerry, Teena, Drew, Betty, Judy, Joe T., all his other family members.
