“ Jr was a man who loved everyone who love the woods the 4 wheeling in the woods and he loved his wife and family. We was young when we met you all moved in next door to us he was older than me. He treated me like his sister he didn't make no difference in us. You have been a good man through your life. Jr. always was ready to talk to who ever it might be you ran into you would talk to them. You and my brother DESTRY GRIMES was best friends. He would still come and see you all and stay with you an enjoy his self as he was there and you 2 talked almost every day so just wait your friends will be with you soon plus the ones are already up there waiting on you mom and dad they are there waiting on you , you will be missed by all RIP MY FRIEND.,

“ I still remember that day he'd come knocking on the door and look at me and said let go for a ride... (on his Hornet) , I was like, “seriously😬” ?
I most have done some wrong 😬 !!!
But, we went for some coffee at the BP on 909...with his friends.... then we hit the road !!! We had the most amazing conversation.... We laughed our brains out... while I was holding myself with all I got on me... while driving on 25😬 !!!
R.I.P. Grant Bowling... I most definitely will missed you Buddy !
