“ We had the best when it came to a father, a husband a papaw and a brother. He loved us all and would help us in any way he could. But the babies always had him wrapped around their little finger. He was the patriarch of the family and he will be miss beyond any words I can find to say. God must have needed him and decided it was time for him to come home. And as he walked through the gates of heaven I know mamaw and papaw and so many other's were there to welcome him home. God saved daddy in 2000, so I know I will see him again!
