“ Irene was like a grandmother to me. She was one of my patients before she went to reside at Laurel Heights, and I continued to go visit her there. I would take her Christmas presents, candy, sandals for her feet, and many other trinkets that she loved. She would text me most every night and say, "Goodnight my sweet angel." I will truly miss her and her comical sayings and fun nature. I love you Irene. "Goodnight my sweet Irene. See you soon."

“ Irene was our mother's roommate at Laurel Heights. Irene liked to keep a close watch of our mom, helping to take care of her and letting us know of any possible issues that might arise, a cough or pain. We are going to miss Irene terribly during our visits to our mother. She sure livened up the room! We loved Irene.
