Her and mike loved my son so much, when I heard the news I broke down because we weren't close friends but we were still friends. Ivey, you will forever be in mine and my sons hearts. “ I remember making friends with Ivey at around age 17 or 18 she drove a purple Beretta car which I was so proud to ride in the passenger seat. We always had a blast and remember her bedroom having a water bed and if my memory serves me well it was purple and black. She helped me SO much in a great time of need at the lowest point in my life as a nurse. Thank you I've you are loved and are greatly missed rest in peace baby girl.
Love you,
Michelle Whitehead
