“ He was a great brother-in-law. He always raised a big garden and wanted to share it. He knew my grandchildren loved green beans, so he would harvest them and when they were ready he would call and say "come and get them". He stayed dedicated to my sister even after her death almost 15 years ago. That says something for this man. Now Heaven has gained their reunion. Love and prayers Beverley, Donna, and Lori and to all the family during this time of need.

Love to all,
Aunt Janis and Uncle Woody
