

"Jack" Clarence Edward Dugger

November 3, 1937 - December 26, 2021

Clarence Edward Dugger, known as Jack by those who knew and loved him, age 84 of Lily, Kentucky passed away on Sunday, December 26, 2021.

He leaves behind one sister, Cheyenne Tyler. He was loved and cared for by James and Joan Kenney.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Myrtle Miracle Tyler; and by three siblings, Lily May, Roosevelt Cupp and Alan Tyler.

Jack enjoyed watching baseball, car racing, and wrestling, especially women wrestlers. He loved to tinker on and drive John Deere tractors. Jack loved to care for animals as well. All animals loved getting attention from Jack. He loved to tell stories of times past and could recall dates, events and people as if the time had occurred yesterday. Jack worked as a farm hand for local farmers, tending to cattle, tobacco, hay and anything else that needed done around the farm. Jack never met a stranger; he was always smiling, singing or laughing. He truly was the happiest, most humble person. He loved life and those around him to the fullest. If we could all be a bit more like Jack, this world would be a better place. If you knew him, you were blessed.
