“ Jackie was the life of a party! I'll always remember as we were embarking on a cruise ship, trying to coordinate a group picture- where's Jackie? On the floor in the corner painting her toenails! Or the first time I met her she was visiting our Kingdom Hall in Manchester sitting in the row behind me. During the meeting her fake nail popped off and landed right beside me! We had a good laugh! Never a dull moment when Jackie was around!

“ I am so sorry for you all, you will always be in my prayers. Jackie was a bright light in this life so happy I got to know her. She was a great person, would definitely set you straight (out of love), make you smile and laugh every conversation you had with her ❤️ Most faithful ❤️ Will deeply miss you forever and will carry all you taught me for the rest of my life.
