“ Probably my first real memory of Jim was when he traveled with another cousin to our house in Iowa. We had such rare visits from Kentucky family! I was a young teenager and he was patient and kind. I loved and respected him from that day on! I believe he even drew a picture for me on that trip. Our hearts are with his entire family at this difficult time. All our love!

“ Jim gave me a hard time almost every time I saw him. Whether it was poking fun at the most recent ridiculous pair of shoes I'd put on or questioning my new hairstyle (or lack thereof), he roasted me relentlessly. And I loved it! He was definitely one of the good guys and will be missed. All of my love to the Weaver family.
