

James "Jim" Moore

April 4, 1929 - January 16, 2019

James "Jim" Moore, age 89, of London, KY passed away on Wednesday, January 16, 2019 at Saint Joseph Hospital in London, KY.

He leaves behind his wife, Mildred Steele Moore; one son, Bill Muncy & wife Pidge of Roseville, CA; one grand-daughter, Julie Muncy & husband Lawrence Azerrad of Los Angeles, CA plus a host of nieces, nephews, & friends to mourn the loss of Uncle Jim.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, Ethel Moore; his parents, John F. Moore & Lillie Warren Moore; one son, Gary Wayne Moore; eleven siblings, Thelma Moore, Charles Moore, Walter Moore, John Moore, Beulah May, Edna Brown, Madge Hatcher, Hazel Banks, Edith Kelly, Dorothy Bolton, and Bill Moore.

Jim was a retired truck driver for Yellow Trucking after 35 years of employment and served our country in the United States Army. He loved to fish and was always looking to catch the "big ones". He loved people as you know, he never met a stranger. Jim was an amazing story teller and those stories of his youth can be found in the Library of Congress.

Funeral Services for James "Jim" Moore will be held Saturday, January 19, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. in the chapel of House-Rawlings Funeral Home with his son, Bill Muncy officiating. A Graveside service and burial will follow at the Dayton Memorial Park Cemetery in Dayton, OH on Monday, January 21, 2019. The family will receive friends on Saturday, January 19, 2019 beginning at 1:00 p.m. until the funeral hour. In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully requests that you make a donation to the charity of your choice. The family has entrusted House-Rawlings Funeral Home with the arrangements.
