“ Sheila and Carol Ann, I got to know him at Laurel Heights and I loved to hear him sing. When Harvey Scalf came up on Sunday and he would sign The Old Ship of Zion. He and Ada Elza would join in and I could have listen to them all day. I will never forget that and when I hear that song he will pop into my mind. So many that we know and love have departed in the last 2 years. My prayers are with you and your family.
