“ Morris, Irene, Bob and I would sit out on their porch and just talk the day away. When i was with Morris, he always made me feel special and important. He was a kind man and its hard to believe we wont be talking on the porch swing anymore.

“ To all the family of Morris Creech.

Good times with Uncle Morris his jokes always slap his knees and laugh. He always took care of Irene and Bobby. The bond fire we had that time was fun and the telephone lines came down the fire got to high. The hay rides and cookouts were always fun. He will be missed.
