“ I am shedding tears. I am in utter shock. How could this be? He was just 10 years old when his brother Roger and I became friends in our senior year in high school.

I'll never forget Jason's hilarious fascination with my cigarette lighter when he was a kid...and he was a huge fan of Metallica. Hanging around Jason and Roger in the early 90s will always be a treasured memory...especially a certain trip to Lexington in December 1991. :) The last time I saw Jason was at his and Roger's mother's funeral.....I never dreamed it would be the last time I would see HIM.

"Time passes by....people pass on....With a drop of a tear they're gone.....

Let's do what we dare....Do what we like....Let's love while we're here.....before Time Passes By..."Kathy Mattea 1990.

An old family friend,

“ You have left all of your pain behind, dear cousin. Now may Our God give us the strength to endure the pain ahead without you. Rest peacefully, while your Memory lingers on. May the mercy of Our God bring you back to all, one day. Rev 21:3,4

I don't know what to say. My heart is just in two pieces right now. My precious little Jason, I loved babysitting you and Bubby. You were my first baby before I had my own. You're with your precious Mommy now and that has to be a comfort to your family. Joyce is holding you again. I'll always love you and you'll always have a very special place in my heart, my darling Jason.
