

Jeffery Dixon

July 6, 1975 - April 6, 2021

Jeffery Dixon, at the age of 45, passed from this earth to his eternal home in heaven on Tuesday, April 6, 2021. He was placed on this earth for a special purpose on July 6, 1975, in Harlan, KY. Jeffery served many while working at Cardinal Hill Rehabilitation Center and the VA Medical Center in Lexington, KY. He recently discovered his true passion for teaching nursing students at KY Healthcare Training in Lexington.

He is preceded in death by his father, Myrthul Dixon.

Jeffery will be forever loved and cherished by his adoring wife, Kellyn Dixon of Lexington, KY, and his devoted mother, Norma Dixon of Cumberland, KY.

Being the youngest of a set of triplets, Jeffery will always be a part of Terry Dixon (Lexington, KY) and Jerry Dixon (Madison, IN). There are four older siblings who will also miss Jeffery for the remainder of their lives: Kathy Dixon Hughes of Cumberland, KY; Melvin Dixon of Cumberland, KY; Jess Dixon of Partridge, KY; and Michael Dixon of London, KY.

In addition to his brothers and sisters, Jeffery will continually be missed by his brothers-in-law, Carlton Hughes and Ben Chaffins, and sisters-in-law, Sheila Dixon, Katie Dixon, Tracy Dixon, Heather Dixon, and Lenora Dixon, as well as his mother and father in-law, Karen and Mark Chaffins.

Jeffery leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews, Noah Hughes of Marquette, MI; Ethan (Kersyn) Hughes of Lexington, KY; Madison and Karsten Dixon of Cumberland, KY; Caleb and Katie-Beth Blair of Partridge, KY; Joseph Dixon of London, KY; Dakota Dixon of Cumberland, KY; Madilynn Dixon and AhLanie Grossman of Madison, IN.

Very special cousins, Mark (Eda) Turner of Putney, KY, and their children, Jared and Elyse Turner, as well as Sherry B. Thompson of Cumberland, KY, and her daughter, Janie Thompson of Dalton, GA, will always remember the special bond they shared with Jeffery.

There are many other family members, friends, and co-workers who will never forget the extraordinary times spent with Jeffery. His gifts for singing and playing multiple musical instruments in church will remain in our hearts and ears for years to come.

Jeffery's wife, Kellyn, would like to invite everyone to celebrate his wonderful life on Saturday, April 10, at Kerr Brothers Funeral Home on Harrodsburg Rd. in Lexington, KY. Visitation will be from 12:00-2:30 and funeral services will follow at 2:30 with Kellyn's uncle, Ronnie Chaffins, officiating. Jeffery will be laid to rest with his other family members on Sunday, April 11, at 2:30 in Huff Cemetery located in Cumberland, KY. Beloved friend, Rev. Ronald Johns will be conducting the graveside service.

In lieu of flowers, Kellyn is asking that donations be made to the American Diabetes Association in memory of Jeffery.

“ O how I loved Jeffrey! He was one of the kindest, sweetest, loving young men you could know! I will miss him but I know where he is and that we are one day closer to seeing him again! Always a smile! He touched a lot of people’s lives because of his love for the Lord and others! Praying for Kellyn, Norma, Kathy, Melvin, Jess, Michael, Terry and Jerry and the whole family! Love you all! ❤️

“ I remember when the triplets were born. The main memory that stands out about Jeff was homecoming at church, he was playing the piano and I was singing After While it will all be over.....well...Jeffery gets up and shouts all over the piano and sits back down and starts playing.....such a wonderful service. I love this kid, so hearbroken he is gone, but have no doubts he is rejoicing in a hallelujah place. Annetta Combs Boggs

“ We send our condolences & Love too the Dixon family my cousin's. Me & my sister Sherry always loved getting the triplets ready for church. Jeffery was little tike that's what we called him. He was the smallest of the three. The first babies I ever held in my life. They had a piece of my heart from that day on. I will always miss Jeffery & loved him dearly even though I was a state away. Heaven got another angel❤️ Love Always
KATHY DARK &
JESS BLANTON SENDS Condolences also.❤️
