Love and Hugs to you. Losing a brother is a very difficult trial. God sees you, hears you, and will not leave your side. Rest in his grace, find peace in his promise. I so enjoyed my short meeting of John. Hold all the good times in your heart. Take on no burden that is not yours to bear. Know you are loved..... Your Cousin, Debbie

“ In 8th grade, John prevented me from getting a Dodge Viper. The class went on a field trip but I wasn't "behaved enough" to go. They ate at McDonald's during the same time the Monopoly game was running. As it goes, I had 2 of the 3 pieces to win a Dodge Viper. The students came back willing and dealing their pieces and John had the missing piece I needed for my board at home. I tried to buy or trade but that's not possible when you do not have any money or anything to trade - so I didn't get the piece. The next day started our Christmas break so I wasn't able to go home and confirm it was the missing piece and come back the next day with a real offer. So that is the story. I've told it many times. My prayers are with the family and the many loved ones he leaves behind.
