His children and grandchildren were truly his life, and he took great pride in every moment spent with them.

Johnny was a people person who enjoyed being social and never met a stranger. His evenings were often spent visiting with his cousin Tony Bruner and friends, Doc LaBore, sharing laughter and good stories. Saturday

“ Johnny Boone was a good man. He loved driving his car slow and then checking on everybody around the neighborhood. He searched pine top left and right and he'd ride from here to there to just to see what everybody was doing. He never was mean or cruel. You always was nice going to be missed. I enjoyed some time seeing him come down there at Tony when I was there. He was always nice. Going to be going to be Miss Johnny Boone You've had a lot of miles on. You have a safe and pleasant life in heaven
