

Josh McQueen

January 23, 1988 - December 4, 2024

Josh McQueen, age 36, of East Bernstadt, Kentucky passed away on Wednesday, December 4, 2024.

He leaves behind his mother, Angie McQueen; three children, Britton McQueen, Braddon McQueen, Addison McQueen, all of East Bernstadt, KY; three siblings, Sabrina McQueen & Harold Harris, Marissa Couch & husband John, Allen Simpson, all of East Bernstadt, KY; plus a host of other family and friends to mourn his passing.

He was preceded in death by his father, Eddie McQueen; and by his grandparents, Bertha Simpson, Sam McQueen, J. R. May.

Josh worked as a self-employed mechanic, and had a remarkable talent for fixing anything with wheels and a motor, a skill that brought him pride and purpose.

Josh loved the open road on his Harley, the peace of casting a line while fishing, and the joy of listening to his favorite music. More than anything, he loved his family deeply, finding his greatest happiness in the moments he shared with them.

Josh's adventurous spirit, warm heart, and dedication to those he cared about will never be forgotten.

A funeral service honoring Josh McQueen will be held on Sunday, December 8, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. in the chapel of House-Rawlings Funeral Home with Duston McNew and Harold Harris officiating. Burial will follow at the Wathen McQueen Cemetery in London, Kentucky. The family will receive friends on Saturday, December 7, 2024 beginning at 6:00 p.m. until the funeral hour, also at the funeral home. The pallbearers will be Bobby Radford, Duston McNew, Austin Simpson, Kenny Simpson, David Young, Shawn Maggard, Kendall Browning and Lee McQueen.

In lieu of flowers, the family respectfully suggests donations be made to the funeral home to help with funeral expenses. Donations may be made in person, by phone, by mail or through the following link:

“ Josh, my favorite cousin. We could go years without talking and pick right back up where we left off. I have alot of good memories of us as kids, teenagers, and growing up and becoming adults and dads. You were never judgmental and always willing to lend a hand. Your legacy will live on in your kids. We all love an miss you and as you would always say “love yen’s”

“ Josh ill always love you , you was my lunch buddy in high school, we was always friends, anytime day or night I could call u if I needed help or just someone to talk to. We could go years without seeing each other or talking ,not cause we had arguments we just got caught up in our own lives, but no matter how long time passed I knew I could always call on you , an you would be right there no matter what. You was an amazing dad, son , brother, .. you were on taught guy, you got sick an that didnt stop you, you had surgery, that didnt stop you, you still road that harley like nothing ever happened, that what i call a fighter. I'll always love you. "HEAVY D" you will never be forgotten. Rest Easy my friend. You were one taught guy. It was just you time to go , God needed you, everyone has a time to go. That's the hardest part on us. We can't ask why cause its God's plan, you'll be with your dad smiling , laughing an you'll never hurt or be sick again. Watch over us Josh I know you will.. RIP HEAVY D Josh I love you

“ To my dear bubby, how I wish you could have stayed a little longer. I don't know how I will ever get over you leaving us. There are things that will never be the same. Who will I bring my leftovers to now. Who will I call when I need to know something about a car? Who will I give that leg lamp to? The things that I will miss about you is endless. Just endless. If you knew how much you was loved you would be amazed. Life will just never be the same.

“ I'll never forget my first time driving a Harley everyone else told me no. Josh didn't though he let me drive from my house to his with him on the back of it and every since then I've wanted a bike so bad I can't stand it. He said "never in a million years did I think that I'd be on the back of my own Harley " lol you sure will be missed rest in peace buddy
