“ My favorite memory of Josh is before he and Emily got married he contacted me, as her aunt, to surprise her with a video call since I wasn't able to make it to their wedding as I live out of state . Someone with that big of a heart to do that is a very special soul. He will always have a special place in my heart. Emily, I love you and you are in my prayers.

“ One of my favorite memories was hanging out with Josh and his wife Emily at the Rec Bar in Louisville. The look on his face when he seen all the pin ball machines was priceless.

Josh was super nice to me and genuine. He stood up for what he believed in and did not take any shit from anyone. I am so lucky to have known such a kind soul. I know he will be missed by many especially his wife Emily. Emily you are in my thoughts and prayers as you dealing with this horrible loss. Lost but never forgotten, RIP my friend!
